COMPUSPORT SKY DIVING

A K-TEK™ product for Commodore 64™ computers

You are the chosen one of the Air Gypsies, a troupe of daredevils traveling the world performing wonderful aerial feats never before attempted. Today, far above the crowds, you line up at the open door of your plane, take a deep breath, and step out into nothingness! You flip and tumble, spin and twist...all in the ecstasy of a free-fall. Others of the troupe drift by and you can reach out to touch each one. Be very careful of the flocks of wild birds in your way. Contact with one of them could be very dangerous. Happy landing!

TO LOAD:

1. Turn on computer.
2. Insert tape into cassette drive and close door.
3. Make sure that cassette is fully rewound. Press SHIFT and RUNSTOP keys. Release RUNSTOP key, then release SHIFT key.
4. Press PLAY on cassette unit. The computer will search for the game and respond with "FOUND SKY DIVING". The computer will then finish loading the game. Do not remove cassette at this point. Leave PLAY switch down.
5. The game will begin when loading is complete.

TO PLAY:

Use your joystick to maneuver your blue sky-diver so that he stays in contact with one of his sky-diving buddies. Avoid hitting flying birds.

TO SCORE:

Rack up the points only while touching a fellow diver.

REQUIREMENTS: Commodore 64™ Computer, Cassette Drive & Joystick.
