Asylum™

A crazed maniac is about to blow up the world. You know his secret but you're thought mad and trapped in an asylum which is a maze of strange rooms and stranger inmates. 3-D graphics make you feel you're there in this adventure. Full sentence input helps you get out. But can you? Or is it too late for the world?

Available for Atari, Commodore 64 and Apple.

The Institute™

A cup is hidden in your room. Red powders are locked in the dispensary. They're the keys to a series of 4 dreams in which you'll seek Freudian solutions to help you escape. What secrets do the sabre toothed tigers, ancient reptilian gods, and the Titantic holds? While you die a thousand deaths, rich graphics and full sentence input brings The Institute™ to life.

Available for Atari, IBM PCjr., and Apple.

Pogo Joe™

The Mutated Wonderwhisk goes whisking by. Close call, Pogo Joe! Then here come all sorts of other nasties after our little man as he rides his pogo stick across fields of cylinders. 32 screens of soaring fun await as Pogo bounces merrily away to lively music that'll brighten up any day.

Playful Professor™ Math Tutor

Math is fun and games? It is now. Each correct answer to a problem brings players closer to the treasure. Give an incorrect answer and the professor shows you where you went wrong. Kids of all ages learn the basics of addition, subtraction, multiplication and division. But basically, it's just an awful lot of fun.

Playful Professor™ Word Factory™

The Word Factory™ is a delightful game which will help children to strengthen their spelling abilities, plus develop their reading vocabulary. The color animation of The Word Factory™ includes a train pulling railroad cars; each featuring letters of the alphabet. The Word Factory™ is the second educational volume in the "Playful Professor" series.

Dunzhin™

Deep in the bowels of a forgotten dungeon lies unknown wealth beyond your wildest dreams. With a good sword, a lot of cunning, and a little magic, you begin your quest against evil of monsterous proportions. At last you reach the bottom of the dungeon! You're half way home.

No fight is desired.
Do you wish to fight?
Available for Atari, Commodore 64 and Apple.

Kaiv™

Don't move a muscle! Don't bat an eye! No matter what you encounter in the cave, you must remain calm. Your thoughts clear. Do you fight like a gladiator, or like a fox? Your fate hangs in the balance.

Instructions: _
